

East Scarborough Storefront Clean up Day Speaking notes

Saturday April 17, 2010

10:00 a.m.

Councillor Ainslie to speak at 10:02 a.m.

First speaker – Welcome and Greetings.

Thank you everyone for joining us as we clean up our community and launch National Volunteer Week.

Volunteering is one of the greatest contributions residents can make to their neighbourhoods.

Volunteerism builds strength and unity.

I would like to thank the key organizers who made this event possible:

- East Scarborough Storefront and all their volunteers - mentioned Dip Habib
- Volunteer Toronto for joining us in Ward 43
- Residents Rising
- Giffen-Mack for their annual participation the communities clean up.
- St. Stephen Presbyterian Church for being such a strong community supporter
- Progress Church for their strong community support
- Evergreen for their involvement today and around the Ward
- The biggest thank you goes out to all the residents who took time of their Saturday to better their community.

Next speakers:

10:04 am: Margaret Best

10:06 am: John McKay

10:08 am: Deborah Gardner, Executive Director, Volunteer Toronto

10:10 am: Ministry of Immigration representative (TBC) Danny Fee of the youth challenge committee

10:12 am: Anne Gloger

10:12 am – 12 pm: Clean up

12 pm: BBQ at Giffen Mack