TORONTO - Councillor Paul Ainslie wants Toronto Public He

Ainslie wants the board of health to add the cleanliness of a re restaurant inspection program.

The move would also have the medical officer of health to com area to ensure it is a health environment for kids.

Health board members will consider Ainslie's proposal at their

The father of three said he's had concerns about the cleanliness

“I’ve had concerns for a long time about the play tubes and kids crapped his diaper and they go find the manager,” Ainslie said

“I just became very concerned about the cleanliness of them at

The Ward 43, Scarborough East councillor stressed some rest:

Toronto Public Health officials said Thursday that currently the eating establishments.”

A spokesman said right now TPH only responds to complaints

In his letter to the health board, Ainslie said play areas should be centres.

Ainslie’s optimistic the change, if approved, would dump much

“If we’re going to (inspect) the whole restaurant, do the play a
